Published based on The Russian Experience: A Destination With Alot To Offer

The Russian Experience: A Destination With Alot To Offer

Russia is definitely a place that shatters preconceptions. Many wouldn't consider Russia as a place to spend a vacation, and, unfortunately, these people are missing out. Russia, as the world's largest country, offers so much to do and see. Traveling to Russia requires a passport. However, with the help of an online passport agency, you can get a passport without ever having to leave your home.

Unlike other countries, Russia has two capital cities, Moscow and St. Petersburg. Probably because of the shear vastness of this country, two capital cities also provide twice the opportunity to experience Russian adventure and culture. Creating a breathtaking experience, colorful domed cathedrals can be found in many Russian cities providing a photo opportunity like nowhere else in the world. While there are buildings attesting to Russia's long history, you will also find many contemporary architectural styles as old and new blend beautifully. You don't want to miss a minute of find a fast passport renewal service online because sooner is certainly better.

Variety and beauty in nature exists in Russia like no where else on earth. The mountains of the Taiga forest and the Arctic tundra are just two examples of opportunity for real adventure. A wide variety of wildlife and spectacular landscape are everywhere in Russia including Lake Baikal. This is one of the oldest and deepest lakes on earth, believed to be 25 million years old and reaching to a depth of 5,387 feet. It has been name a World Heritage Site and is home to the Baikal seal as well as numerous other plant and animal species, some of which can be found nowhere else in the world.

One of Russia's most famous natural locations is the Kamchatka Peninsula which is also the home of 160 volcanoes which line the Kamchatka River. This has also been given the title of World Heritage Site. Speaking of volcanoes, you can find the largest volcano in the northern hemisphere in this area, Klyucheyskaya Sopka. Fascinating wildlife inhabit this area including brown bears, wolves, foxes, reindeer, moose, eagles and falcons. These are found in greater numbers here than anywhere else in the world.

In Russia, the Trans-Siberian Railroad presents an opportunity for adventure unlike any other. Extending about six thousand miles, this form of Russian transportation and site-seeing attract millions from all over the world. A ride on this ribbon of railroad will actually take you on a trip encompassing one-third of the earth but that will, of course, take about one week or more. This experience takes you to visit Russian cities and towns and provide a glimpse at the natural beauty that is Russia. This could be part of the most unique vacation you have ever experienced.

Russia's size alone provides opportunity to experience sites, sounds and adventure unequalled by any other place on earth but you have to get your passport in hand so access an online pasport agency and begin the process for your fast American passport renewal. Then you can journey to the land of unending culture and adventure. You can journey to Russia.

You can also find this article published on The Russian Experience: A Destination With Alot To Offer, and on the tag pages adventure, Experience, home, kamchatka peninsula, kamchatka river, moscow and st petersburg.