Outstanding Vacations in the Agistri Island of Greece

If you want to spend your holidays near beautiful waters, in lush green settings with a truly relaxing environment, then there can be no better place than Agistri Island, Greece. Agistri is a breathtakingly beautiful island situated in the Argo Saronic Gulf. While the Island offers stunning waters, beautiful beaches, awesome scenery and good infrastructure, it is still lesser known among tourists thus making tranquil enough. This island is said to have one of the most beautiful sunsets in the whole of Greece and that is why many tourists opt for Agistri Hotels that provide them with an opportunity to view the awe-inspiring scene from their hotel rooms and terrace.

Beaches:

There are many worth seeing places in the Agistri Island. The west side of the Island has a partially organized beach called Dragonera. It is a pebbled beach with sun beds as well as umbrellas offered to visitors. If you want to relax under the sun and enjoy the beautiful waters, this beach is for you. If you are a water lover, you will fall in love with the exotic, clear, blue green water of Aponissos. Aponissos is a small beach, secluded in Agistri Island's south corner. Chalikiada is yet another beach that Agistri offers, with mostly unorganized planes, located among beautiful green cliffs.

Traditional Villages:

The Island also has adequately developed villages that are a tourist attraction due to traditional settings. The village capital of Agistri is Megalochori that houses beautiful traditional buildings.

Sightseeing:

There is also a beach and a small fishing port. Make sure you take the boating adventure around the Island that is offered from the village. The Island's main port, Skala, is quite a developed one for an Island and is also one of the tourist attractions.

Accommodation:

For accommodation, choose Agistri Hotels near Skala, like Akation, in order to have easy reach to all worth seeing places on the island.
