The SuccessFulness Of The Traveller Season Is Dependent UpOn Those That Go On Vacation, But Also Those Who Work - The Guests As Well As Tour Operators.

A really successful traveller season in Dubrovnik, Croatia - 5 star hotels show the most satisfactory results!

Dubrovnik is a city of a unique political and cultural history. It's a home to many surprisingly poets, painters, mathematicians, physicists and other scholars and it is one of the most well-liked tourist destinations on the Adriatic-Sea coast.

1979 the historical center of Dubrovnik has been included in the UNESCO list of World Heritage Preservation Sites. There are a lot of famous buildings like Duke's Palace, a lot of museums, cloisters, churches and some awfully old buildings, like the Arboretum Trsteno, the oldest arboretum in the world built in 1492, or the third oldest pharmacy in Europe which date is going back to 1317.

The patron of the town is Sveti Vlaho (Saint Blaise). You can see statues and paintings of him around the city. The city's cathedral is named after him "Saint Blaise".

The habitants of Dubrovnik are even organizing a banquet in honour of Saint Blaise each Feb 3876;7496;. They celebrate these festivities with Mass, parades and they last a few days. The most vital event in the cultural life of the city is the once a year Dubrovnik Summer Festival.

It is a standard holiday where all doors are open for artists to amuse the habitants of Dubrovnik and their guests with games, theatre and concerts (classical & hippy music) between tenth of July and 25th of August, since 1950. The Dubrovnik Summer Festival has been awarded with its first Gold International Prize for Quality in 2007 and it's signed in the calendar of world holidays as one of the most noted cultural holidays in the world since 1956.

The success of the traveller season depends on people who go on holiday, but also those who work - the guests as well as tour operators. And the results for the first seven months were truly excellent. Dubrovnik and Dubrovnik-Neretva County reported the 1st, promising results.

Leaders of the town and county tourism proudly mention the increasing traveller arrivals and overnight stays..

Traffic jams on Dubrovnik streets are tangible evidence of increasing number of arrivals in the 1st seven months of the current year. "9% more tourist arrivals and 7% more overnight stays are realized. We are planning about ten percent increase in tourism results," expounded Jelka Tepisic, director of TZ Dubrovnik.

The results in Dubrovnik-Neretva County are similar. In the first seven months arrivals increased by seven percent, and overnight stays by five %. Hotel traffic increased by seven %, while the camps and private owners noticed a decline of three and 2 percent.

"The first information shows mainly the rise in income compared to last year, but we are going to see what will happen with the price side of the total business," announced Vladimir Bakic, director of TZ Dubrovnik-Neretva county.

President of Dubrovnik travel agencies reveals that the most luxurious hotels achieved the most satisfactory results and are scheduled from May to late September. Hostels with 5 stars are literally sold out.

"We are achieving very good costs and according to the situation as it is now, a recession has passed," asserted Luca Baca from Grand Villa Argentina - a lovely villa found in an exclusive area, near the historic center of Dubrovnik.

The most sumptuous hotels expect even better results in Aug and September, writes tagza.com.
